

Jack B. Swerling of Columbia , South Carolina focuses his legal practice on handling criminal cases and appeals in both state and federal courts. His primary focus is the defense of criminal cases relating to white collar offenses, all areas of fraud, drug cases, weapon related cases, money laundering, conspiracy, murder cases and other violent crimes, property crimes, computer related crimes, public corruption, tax crimes and various other criminal offenses. Mr. Swerling also handles select civil cases. He has been a licensed practicing member of the South Carolina Bar since 1973. Mr.Swerling has held various positions including a Bar Examiner, a member of the Board of Grievances and Discipline, President of the South Carolina Bar

Foundation, and he is currently a member of the Chief Justice's Commission on the Legal Profession

Due to his effectiveness and accomplishments as a trial and appellate lawyer, Mr. Swerling has been selected as a Fellow in several exclusive, by invitation only, prestigious organizations, including the American College of Trial Lawyers, the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers, the American Board of Criminal Lawyers, the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and Litigation Counsel of America. Membership in these organizations is limited and is only extended to attorneys who have been subjected to a rigorous investigation into their experience, demonstrated skill and character.

Mr. Swerling has also been honored with an AV Preeminent* peer review rating by Martindale-Hubbell and recognition in "The Best Lawyers in America" publication in the area of criminal defense for the last twenty-six years. He has been selected for South Carolina Super Lawyers since its inception in 2008. Mr. Swerling coordinates and lectures frequently at continuing legal education programs for lawyers and judges, and he speaks frequently at schools, civic organizations and professional groups. He has written several books, chapters and articles on various areas of criminal defense. He has been on the Faculty of the University of South Carolina School of Law and the University of South Carolina School of Medicine, Department of Neuro Psychiatry. Mr. Swerling received the Platinum Compleat Lawyer Award from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 2015.

To learn more about Mr. Swerling, visit his law firm

About The Worthy News